4 INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTIONS

INDUSTRY 4.0

The Fourth Industrial Revolution or Industry 4.0

- WHEN – in the past few decades.
- Industry 4.0 refers to a new phase in the Industrial Revolution that focuses heavily on interconnectivity, automation, machine learning, and real-time data.
- It connects physical with digital and allows for better collaboration and access to all industry and business requirements in different:
  - Departments
  - Partners
  - Vendors
  - Product
  - and people.
- Industry 4.0 empowers business owners to better control and understand every aspect of their operation, and allows them to leverage instant data to boost productivity, improve processes, and drive growth.
- The downside – less of the human factor.

THE HUMAN FACTOR — YOU ARE AHEAD OF THE GAME.
BUT.....

---

Gen Z will experience tumultuous and mind-boggling change in what they can do, where they can work and how they can position themselves, all these in addition to the usual career indecision.

---

You must ensure that out of this unpredictability, complexities and turbulence you can ensure that your end result is you career and life well-being.

THE HUMAN FACTOR

To survive and thrive now, you have to be willing to invest in yourself, your education, skills & knowledge.

You will decide where best to work, - from an office or at home, in a satellite space or in shared workspace.

This fits the Millennial and Gen Z value of flexibility in the workplace—freelancers, contractors, and gig workers
